

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA
IFC STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The Inter-Fraternity Council adopts the Inter-Fraternity Council Standards of Conduct. Each standard contains its own internal jurisdiction, and several standards involve different jurisdictions for different clauses. Fraternities and their members are subject to sanction for misconduct involving:

1. Physical abuse of any person on fraternity owned or controlled property or at fraternity sponsored or supervised functions, or conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person.
2. Damage to fraternity property, or to property owned by a member of a fraternity, or to a visitor or guest of a fraternity.
3. Unauthorized entry into or occupation of fraternity facilities that are locked, closed to student activities, or otherwise restricted to use.
4. Unlawfully blocking or impeding normal pedestrian or vehicular traffic on or adjacent to fraternity property.
5. Disorderly conduct on fraternity owned, operated, or controlled property or at fraternity sponsored functions. Disorderly conduct shall include, but are not limited to acts which tend to breach the peace, or which are deemed lewd, indecent or obscene. Disorderly conduct may also include expression that exceeds the bounds of constitutionally protected speech.
6. Conduct that is incompatible with the good character and personal responsibility expected of all members of the fraternity community and that dishonors the fraternity system at the University of Virginia.
7. Violations of University policies and procedures referenced in the FOA.
8. Failing to comply with the IFC Standards for Parties and Social Events.
9. Failing to comply with the IFC Rush Regulations.
10. Failing to comply with the city/county ordinances governing residences, including garbage, shoveling snow from sidewalks, and noise levels.
11. Any violation of Federal, State, or Local law that directly affects the University's pursuit of its proper educational purposes to the extent such violations are not covered by other Standards of Conduct and only where a specific provision of statute or ordinance is charged in the complaint.
12. Conduct that intentionally violates the rules of confidentiality or obstructs the operations of the IFCJC.
13. Hazing in violation of the Virginia statute or University regulations.
14. Failing to comply with directions of IFC officials acting under provisions 1-13 set out above.
